President’s Welcome Message

Welcome to the 83rd annual meeting of the Southern Sociological Society!

Our meeting theme is Sociology in Action. When I selected this theme, I anticipated papers and sessions that would highlight the outstanding work that is being done putting our disciplinary knowledge to good use in the world – whether through research, teaching, in activism, or in our workplaces. I am so pleased with the response to this theme: we have sessions on teaching community-engaged courses, on research projects with community partners, and reporting research that informs institutional and public policy.

Building this conference is a group effort, and the SSS is extremely well-served by the executive office staff of David Brunsma, Slade Lellock, and Lyla Byers. Tanetta Andersson has led a terrific program committee to bring us the program you see here. And Laura Atkins and the Local Arrangements crew have provided information and guidance to facilitate our experience here.

This meeting, and the SSS overall, has been a professional touchpoint for me for many years, and it has been a pleasure to serve as president this year. I look forward to a wonderful few days with you all in Jacksonville.

Sincerely,

Beth Rushing

Social Currents, the official journal of the Southern Sociological Society, is a broad-ranging social science journal that focuses on cutting-edge research from all methodological and theoretical orientations with implications for national and international sociological communities. The uniqueness of Social Currents lies in its format. The front end of every issue is devoted to short, theoretical, agenda-setting contributions and brief, empirical and policy-related pieces. The back end of every issue includes standard journal articles that cover topics within specific subfields of sociology, as well as across the social sciences more broadly.

The Southern Sociologist (TSS) is the official publication of the Southern Sociological Society. It is typically published electronically four times a year in the months of May, September, January, and March. The purpose of TSS is to report the news, announcements, and information of interest to the profession and to serve as a medium of communication for the SSS membership on issues affecting the profession Contributions To bring you the news, we need your news! Please send any news of your department and/or colleagues for possible publication in TSS. Articles pertaining to the state of the profession or the discipline are also welcome. To appear in the next issue, submissions must be received by the deadline listed below.

Deadlines for submission to TSS:
Feb. 10th
May 10th
Aug. 10th
Dec. 10th

If you have questions regarding The Southern Sociologist, please contact James Maples (James.Maples@eku.edu).
Anti-Harassment Policy

SSS reminds everyone: Our Annual Meeting is convened for the purposes of professional development and scholarly educational interchange in the spirit of free inquiry and free expression. Harassment of colleagues, students, hotel staff or other conference participants undermines the principle of equity at the heart of these professional fora and is inconsistent with the principles of free inquiry and free expression. Consequently, harassment is considered by SSS to be a serious form of professional misconduct.

The following Anti-Harassment Policy outlines expectations for all those who attend or participate in SSS meetings. It reminds SSS meeting participants that all professional academic ethics and norms apply as standards of behavior and interaction at these meetings.

Purpose

SSS is committed to providing a safe and welcoming conference environment for all participants, free from harassment based on age, race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, language, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, disability, health conditions, socioeconomic status, marital status, domestic status, or parental status (hereafter, simply harassment).

"Participant" in this policy refers to anyone present at SSS meetings, including staff, contractors, vendors, exhibitors, venue staff, SSS members, and all other attendees.

Expected Behavior

All participants at SSS meetings are expected to abide by this Anti-Harassment Policy in all meeting venues including ancillary events as well as official and unofficial social gatherings.

• Follow the norms of professional respect that are necessary to promote the conditions for free academic interchange.
• If you witness potential harm to a conference participant, be proactive in helping to mitigate or avoid that harm.
• Alert conference security personnel or law enforcement if you see a situation in which someone might be in imminent physical danger.

Unacceptable Behavior

Harassment of any participant is unethical behavior under the American Sociological Association Code of Ethics, which offer guiding principles for how sociologists should conduct themselves in all professional activities both in person and online. Harassment consists of a single intense and severe act or of multiple persistent or pervasive acts which are demeaning, abusive, offensive, or create a hostile professional or workplace environment. Harassment may include sexual solicitation, physical advance, or verbal or non-verbal conduct that is sexual in nature; it may also include threatening, intimidating, or hostile acts; circulation of written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility toward an individual or group; epithets, slurs, or negative stereotyping based on group identity.

Attendees are encouraged to immediately report instances of harassment during the Annual Meeting to a member of the SSS Executive Committee (see list here https://goo.gl/2Cmduu). To read the American Sociological Association Code of Ethics in its entirety, visit www.asanet.org and follow the link to "Ethics."
