RESTAURANTS WORTH THE DRIVE

Alon's Bakery $

1394 North Highland Avenue (Virginia-Highlands)
404-872-6000
www.alons.com

In their Bakery department, they offer a full selection of Artisan breads, Hand-crafted pastries and their Award-Winning selection cookies.

Bacchanalia Restaurant $$$$

1198 Howell Mill Road (Midtown West)
404-365-0410
www.starprovisions.com

Bacchanalia is Atlanta's most celebrated restaurant featuring American cuisine from Chef's/Owners Anne Quatrano and Clifford Harrison whose culinary philosophy is creating light dishes built on strong flavors. Consistently rated as one of Atlanta's top 10 restaurants and #1 restaurant in the Zagat guide since 1996. Reservations required. (Prix fixe; dinner only; reservations required.)

Bone's $$$$

3130 Piedmont Road (Buckhead)
404-237-2663
www.bonesrestaurant.com

Bone's opened its doors in 1979 with a mission to provide only the finest service, steaks and seafood. Since that time, they are proud to have been recognized as the best steakhouse in Atlanta -- and by many, as the best steakhouse in America. Prime beef, fresh seafood, and Maine lobster are served along with regional specialties from our Southern roots. (Dinner only on weekends; reservations required.)

Buckhead Diner $$$

3073 Piedmont Road (Buckhead)
404-262-3336
www.buckheadrestaurants.com/diner.html

Buckhead Diner is an American dining experience unlike any other. Inventive menu items, snappy service, upscale atmosphere and retro style give this Atlanta icon a funky flair all its own. The fun menu and energy-packed atmosphere gives guests a taste of nostalgia that's always in style.

Canoe $$$$

4199 Paces Ferry Road (Vinings)
770-432-2663
www.canoe-atl.com

Tucked away along the peaceful banks of the Chattahoochee River, yet conveniently located in the Atlanta community of Vinings lies one of the country's most acclaimed restaurants. Balanced by both culinary expertise and natural aesthetics, Canoe offers a rich, flavorful experience for all your senses. One that has garnered numerous accolades, like being inducted into Nation's Restaurant News 2005 Fine Dining Hall of Fame. (Dinner only on Saturday; reservations required.)

Canton House $

4825 Buford Highway (Doraville)
770-936-9030

Traditional dim sum and Cantonese cuisine. Winner of the 2008 "Best Dim Sum" award from Creative Loafing.

Dining Room at Ritz Carlton Buckhead $$$$

3434 Peachtree Road (Buckhead)
404-237-2700

Year after year the Dining Room is voted Atlanta's very best restaurant. Featuring locally sourced Georgia ingredients, The Ritz-Carlton, Buckhead prepares your senses for a culinary adventure that only a true five-star restaurant can provide. ### Kyma $$$$

3085 Piedmont Road (Buckhead)
404-262-0702
www.buckheadrestaurants.com/kyma.html

Kyma is a contemporary seafood tavern with an inventive yet approachable menu that stays true to its Mediterranean origins. Kyma's dazzling constellation display on the deep blue ceiling, white marble columns and bold fresh fish display are dramatic while the inviting patio offers an ideal setting for savoring a glass of Greek wine. Fresh, healthy food, attentive Mediterranean hospitality and festive atmosphere await at Kyma. (Dinner only; closed Sunday; reservations recommended.)

Watershed $$$

1820 Peachtree Road Atlanta, GA30309
404-809-3561
http://www.watershedrestaurant.com/

Watershed first opened its doors 14 years ago in Decatur, Georgia. Owner Emily Saliers (of the Grammy winning Indigo Girls) joined forces with Chef Scott Peacock who came wielding recipes from his mentor the legendary Miss Edna Lewis. Collectively, they managed to make Watershed (housed in a converted gas station) one of the most buzzed-about restaurants in the city, claiming a James Beard award in 2007. (Brunch only on Sunday; reservations recommended.)

Events and Attractions in Atlanta During the SSS Annual Meetings
April 24th through April 27th
By James Ainsworth

While all of us should be spending most of our time attending the very exciting set of sociological talks listed on the program, it is always fun to sneak out for a day of fun, or an evening on the town. So what is there to do in Atlanta during the meetings? Below I have done some legwork for you and identified some events that you might find interesting. Have fun in Atlanta!

Theaters:

The Fox Theater

Phone Number (404) 881-2100
Address 660 Peachtree Street NE, Atlanta, Georgia 30308
Location URL <http://www.foxtheatre.org/>

At the world renowned Fox Theater, walking distance from the conference hotel, there will be the presentation of the musical Sister Act. According to the Fox's website, "SISTER ACT is Broadway's feel-amazing musical comedy smash! The New York Post calls it "RIDICULOUSLY FUN," and audiences are jumping to their feet in total agreement! Featuring original music by 8-time Oscar winner ALAN MENKEN (Beauty and the Beast, The Little Mermaid, Little Shop of Horrors), SISTER ACT tells the story of Deloris Van Cartier, a wannabe diva whose life takes a surprising turn when she witnesses a crime and the cops hide her in the last place anyone would think to look - a convent! Under the suspicious watch of Mother Superior, Deloris helps her fellow sisters find their voices as she unexpectedly rediscovers her own. A sparkling tribute to the universal power of friendship, SISTER ACT is a reason to REJOICE!" That sounds like fun, and the show will be playing each night, and twice on Saturday and Sunday. Reserve your seats now.

The Alliance Theater

Phone Number (404) 733-4650
Address 1280 Peachtree St NE Atlanta, GA 30309
Location URL <http://alliancetheatre.org/>

At the Alliance Theater, you will find "the legend of Zorro, a fighter of corruption and lover of beautiful women. When Don Diego comes home from Spain, he finds his father dead and his brother running Los Angeles...badly. Don Diego's foppish exterior hides the soul of a desert fox—Zorro! A deliciously fun extravaganza that conquered audiences throughout Europe and London's West End, this wonderful musical features songs by the Gipsy Kings in a new American adaptation." This theater offers a student discount, with a student ID, you can score $10 tickets to almost any show at the Alliance.

The 14th Street Playhouse*Phone Number 404-733-5000Address 173 14th Street Northeast Atlanta, GA 30309-3838Location URL <http://www.14thstplayhouse.org/>

The 14th Street Playhouse presents “Jewel...A Diamond Living in the Rough”
Jewel is a woman that has taken over her Mother’s Boutique after she dies. She denies herself the chance to venture out and discover her true career path. She is a woman walking through life, living with phobias; however, she does have family and friends that are supportive. She goes through a life changing event that causes her to come out of the shell she’s been living in, only to tackle another phobia. What happens when you’re not living the life you’re really supposed to live? What happens when you want to break away from the battles that have held you back? You begin to realize that you are a rare and precious gemstone - You are a Jewel...A Diamond living in the rough. Ticket Prices: $20.00; $25:00 VIP Package (front row including meeting the actors and backstage pass)

Rialto Center for the Performing Arts*Phone Number (404) 413-9849Address 80 Forsyth St NW Atlanta, GA 30303Location URL <https://tickets.rialtocenter.org/Public/show.asp>

On April 27th only, the Rialto Center for the Performing Arts presents “Tiempo Libre” Classically trained at Cuba’s premiere conservatories, Miami-based three-time GRAMMY-nominated Tiempo Libre performs the incendiary sounds of timba, a high-energy, danceable blend of Latin jazz and son rhythms. Tiempo Libre’s seven musicians came together to realize a common vision: to create the first authentic all-Cuban timba band in the United States. Their passion for the music of their heritage led them together between an array of other projects to forge this exciting new group, hence the name Tiempo Libre, which means “free time.”

Center for Puppetry Arts*Phone Number 404-873-3391Address 1404 Spring St. NW at 18th Atlanta, GA 30309-2820Location URL <http://www.puppet.org/>

For those into puppets (yes Atlanta has everything!) there is the Center for Puppetry Arts presentation of The Adventures of Alvin Sputnik: Deep Sea Explorer. This is a multi award-winning one-man micro-epic puppet show that melds technology and multimedia into a touching story of enduring love and the end of the world. The seas have risen, billions have died and those who are left live on farms atop skyscrapers, atop mountains. The scientists have tried everything. Floating islands sank, space probes found nothing, and the giant sponges, visible from the moon, are now rotting icons of failure. Now science and humanity are turning to the oceans themselves. A last ditch effort to save the human race requires journeying down through the mysterious depths of the deep blue sea to find a new place for us to live. Alvin Sputnik, who has just lost his wife, accepts this perilous mission so that he may follow her soul down to the underworld so that they can be together again once more. Created and performed by Tim Watts, who employs an unique blend of mime, puppetry, live and recorded music, and animation to present an exploration of the next and oldest frontier: the deep blue sea.

Agatha's - A Taste of Mystery*Phone Number (404) 584-2255Address 161 Peachtree Center Ave NE Atlanta, GA 30303Location URL <http://www.agathas.com/>

During the Southern Agatha's - A Taste of Mystery presents "Night at the Sternbank Museum" The SternBank Museum of Natural, Cultural, and Historical History has some exciting news! Along with their amazing displays of Indian artifacts, fossilized creatures, and dinosaur exhibits, they've recently acquired a one-of-a-kind Etruscan necklace that dates back to 800 B.C. Too bad nobody told them it's also cursed! Tonight at the museum, the "The Ladies Who Wear Hats" president-in-waiting, Rosalind Threadbare needs everything to go perfectly. She's thought of everything, the food, the décor, the music. The one thing she didn't count on, was murder! Join The Mummified Mummy, Ben Franklin, Wanda Woodwoof, and Helen of Troy for another amazing night of laughs, suspense, and a museum-gone-wild in "A Night at the SternBank Museum". As always at Agatha's, the audience participates in the action in the comic murder mystery. Each night, the entire audience has a chance to die laughing between 5 courses of dinner including hor d'oeuvres, a choice of entree' and a glass of wine with salad.

7 Stages Theater

Phone Number 404-523-7647
Address 1105 Euclid Avenue N.E. Atlanta, GA 30307
Location URL <http://www.7stages.org/>

Catch the 7 Stages Theater's U.S. Premiere of Lady Lay that takes a joy ride through life's rules and regulations. Marianne has worked at the West Berlin Employment office all her life. When she hears Bob Dylan on the radio her world is forever changed and the wall falls down, so does a desk, and Dylan himself. Although she can hardly understand the words of this inspirational new music, she knows she must begin a personal revolution that puts her very existence in jeopardy.

Theater in the Square

Phone Number (770) 422-8369
Address 11 Whitlock Ave. Marietta, GA 30064
Location URL:
<http://www.theatreinthesquare.com/view/shows/viewone/&curshow=94>

During the Southern this theater presents Tuna Does Vegas. Some of the more colorful denizens of Tuna (third smallest town in Texas) head for Las Vegas and you can bet on hitting the belly-laugh jackpot. Grits meets Glitz as some Tuna regulars run head-on into a pair of dueling Elvises and other riotous Sin City citizens. The latest in the Tuna cycle as two actors play multiple roles with lightning fast costume and character changes.

The Atlanta Opera

Phone Number (770) 916-2800
Address 2800 Cobb Galleria Pkwy Cumberland, GA 30339
Location URL <http://www.cobbenergycentre.com/>

On April 27th, The Atlanta Opera will present Rossini's bel canto opera The Italian Girl in Algiers for the first time. In this whimsical, madcap adventure set in a 1930's pop-up book, Isabella is captured by an Algerian ruler who dreams of adding an Italian wife to his harem. Once imprisoned, Isabella turns the tables and rescues the man of her dreams. With more belly laughs than any opera should reasonably permit, Rossini's The Italian Girl in Algiers will charm your socks off! This performance takes place at the Cobb Energy Centre.

Museums:

Special Exhibits at the High Museum of Art

Phone Number (404) 733-4444

Address 1280 Peachtree St NE Atlanta, GA 30309

Location URL <http://www.high.org/>

Sociologists are likely to find the The High Museum of Art's collection of civil rights photography particularly interesting. It holds one of the most significant collections of photographs of the civil rights movement. The works on display are a small selection of the collection, which numbers more than 250 photographs that document the social protest movement, from Rosa Parks's arrest to the Freedom Rides to the march on Washington, D.C. The city of Atlanta—the birthplace of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.—was a hub of civil rights activism and figures prominently in the collection. Visionary leaders such as Dr. King, Congressman John Lewis, and former mayor Ambassador Andrew Young are featured alongside countless unsung heroes. The photographs in this collection capture the courage and perseverance of individuals who challenged the status quo, armed only with the philosophy of nonviolence and the strength of their convictions. The images were made by committed artists, activists, and journalists, who risked injury, arrest, and even death to document this critical moment of growth in our nation. The tenacity of these dedicated and gifted people—on both sides of the camera—continues to inspire social justice advocates today.

For those who like art for art's sake, there are also several special exhibits taking place during the time the SSS meetings are in Atlanta. Specifically, Frida and Diego: Passion, Politics, and Painting features more than 120 paintings and drawings by Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera, including an important group of photographs by artists who captured the couple's shared passion for each other and Mexico's revolutionary culture during the 1920s and 1930s. Gogo: Nature Transformed explores the role the natural environment plays in shaping the jewelry and home wares created by Georgia designer Janet "Gogo" Ferguson. This is the first museum exhibition to showcase Gogo's designs, inspired mainly by found objects from Georgia's southernmost barrier island, Cumberland Island. Also, the internationally acclaimed artist, Katherina Gross creates works that challenge conventional notions of what a painting can be and, literally, the shape it might take. She has three pieces on view on the skyway level of Wieland Pavillion. Finally, another exhibit features contemporary artist Aaron Curry, who is noted for the improbable combinations of art historical references in his sculpture, including the distorted planes of Cubism, the bright colors and flat surfaces of Pop, and the sometimes disconcerting biomorphism of Surrealism. Curry's trio of brightly painted sculptures are installed on the lawn.

Fernbank Museum of Natural History

Phone Number (404) 929-6300
Address 767 Clifton Road NE Atlanta, GA 30307
Location URL <http://www.fernbankmuseum.org/>

Fernbank Museum isn't just another museum-it's a journey to another time and place. A visit to the Museum brings a unique opportunity to explore cultural treasures, experience the thrill of a film in the IMAX® Theatre, enjoy science interactives and marvel at dinosaurs. Only at Fernbank Museum can you come face-to-face with the world's largest dinosaurs, explore the development of life on Earth through the landscapes of present-day Georgia, connect with cultures from around the globe, engage in a variety of hands-on exhibitions and more! And you won't want to miss stunning rotating special exhibitions or the incredible 5-story experience of an IMAX® film.

The Atlanta History Center

Phone Number (404) 814-4000
Address 130 West Paces Ferry Rd NW Atlanta, GA 30305
Location URL <http://www.atlantahistorycenter.com/>

Founded in 1926, the Atlanta History Center located in Buckhead is an all-inclusive thirty-three acre destination featuring the Atlanta History Museum, one of the Southeast's largest history museums; two historic houses, the 1928 Swan House and the Smith Family Farm; the Centennial Olympic Games Museum; the Kenan Research Center; the Grand Overlook event space; the Coca-Cola Cafe, and acres of historic gardens and woodland trails. In addition, the History Center operates the Margaret Mitchell House. Located in Midtown Atlanta, the two-acre campus features tours of the apartment where Margaret Mitchell wrote her Pulitzer Prize-winning novel Gone With the Wind, an exhibit highlighting the life and times of Margaret Mitchell, a Gone with the Wind movie exhibit, and a gift shop.

During the last full weekend in April each year, Inman Park proudly presents a neighborhood festival widely regarded as Atlanta's most spirited and eclectic. The Inman Park Spring Festival takes place in one of Atlanta's oldest and most scenic neighborhoods. First developed in the late 1800s, Inman Park is home to many historic homes and parks. The Festival began in the early 1970s as a means to attract attention to gentrification efforts that sought to revitalize the community. Now celebrating its 42nd anniversary, the festival offers something for everybody. Music, kids activities, a Tour of Homes, a marvelous street parade, an artists' market, some of the city's best people-watching. Come early, stay late, and be our guests at Atlanta's best street festival.

With all of this to do, how will you make time? Enjoy your time in Atlanta at the SSS meetings, but be sure to attend the paper sessions too, of course.
