

Call For Papers: Stalled Revolutions? Gender Inequality in the 21st Century

Southern Sociological Society Annual Meeting
March 25-28, 2015
New Orleans
Astor Crowne Plaza

President

David Maume, University of Cincinnati

Program Chairs

Shannon N. Davis, George Mason University

Sarah Winslow, Clemson University

The theme for the 2015 meeting is “Stalled Revolutions? Gender Inequality in the 21st Century.” The society president and program chairs encourage thematic papers and thematic panels that address the many issues encompassed under this theme. See David Maume’s article in The Southern Sociologist (volume 46, issue 1) for more details on the conference theme. We look forward to a great meeting in New Orleans!

Submission Deadline: October 24, 2014

We are working to create a strong, intellectually stimulating program. To be considered for a place on the program, complete submissions with title, extended abstract, author names and contact information must be received by the above deadline.

I. SUBMISSION TYPES AND PROCEDURES

A. All proposed presentations or panels will be submitted online through the SSS online submission system at <http://www.mymeetingsavvy.com/sss>. The window for submission will be open from September 1 to October 24 at 6:00 p.m. EST. Five submission types are available: 1) Individual papers; 2) Complete paper sessions; 3) Thematic paper sessions; 4) Poster presentations; or 5) Research Incubators. At least one author for each submitted paper must be a current member of SSS at the time of submission. You can join the Society or Renew your membership dues online (<http://www.southernsociologicalsociety.org/join.html>). Also, please note that conference attendees are strongly encouraged to Preregister for SSS2015 on or before March 1, 2015. Those who register after this date will pay On-Site Registration fees.

A description of each submission type appears below.

1. Individual Papers: Members may submit extended abstracts of individual papers for inclusion in a regular paper session. These papers will be organized into sessions by the program committee members on the basis of common themes. All submissions for a regular paper presentation should include: 1) the title of the paper; 2) authors’ names and affiliations and contact information for each author; and 3) an extended abstract. Extended abstracts should be approximately 450-550 words and must include the following sections:

- Objectives and theoretical framework
- Methods and data sources
- Findings

We understand that theoretical and methodological papers may include other information in lieu of methods and findings. Individual paper submissions will be assigned to either a regular paper session, a roundtable, or the poster session, per the discretion of the program committee. Submitters have the option of opting out of having a paper forwarded to a roundtable or the poster session.

2. Complete Paper Sessions: Members may submit proposals for complete sessions. These sessions may take the form of paper presentations that follow a single theme, featured panel discussions of a timely topic, sessions that honor a colleague, author-meets-critics sessions, etc. Generally, complete sessions should contain four presenters (e.g., 4 authors, 3 authors and 1 discussant, 1 book author and 3 critics, and so on). The following information must be provided in the online system for complete paper sessions: 1) a suggested title for the panel; 2) the titles of each paper/presentation; 3) extended abstracts (see guidelines above) for each paper/presentation; 4) names, affiliations, and contact information for each author, critic, panelist, discussant, etc. An individual whose paper is part of a complete paper session will not need to submit that paper separately.
3. Thematic Paper Sessions: We encourage members to submit proposals for thematic paper sessions. Thematic sessions typically are identical in structure to complete paper sessions, but they are organized around a topic that fits closely with the theme of the 2015 conference: “Stalled Revolutions? Gender Inequality in the 21st Century.” The following information must be provided in the online system for thematic paper sessions: 1) a suggested title for the panel; 2) the titles of each paper/presentation; 3) extended abstracts for each paper/presentation (see guidelines above); 4) names, affiliations, and contact information for each author, critic, panelist, discussant, etc. An individual whose paper is part of a complete paper session will not need to submit that paper separately.
4. Poster Presentations: Members may submit abstracts for papers to be included in the poster session. Poster presentation submissions must include the name, affiliation, and contact information for all authors, as well as a title and brief abstract of the work to be presented. Posters should display data, policy analysis, or theoretical work in a visually appealing format that stimulates interaction with poster session attendees.
5. Research Incubator Submissions: Research incubators are designed as an opportunity for graduate students and junior faculty to receive focused feedback on an advanced research proposal or early project from a more senior faculty member. Authors are asked to designate that they are interested in participating in a research incubator session, then submit an extended abstract (see guidelines above). The research incubator sessions will have 3 presenters and 1 mentor. The presentations will be limited to 10 minutes each to permit time for feedback and discussion.

- B. All paper and poster presentations should be original work that has not been published or presented elsewhere. Noted exceptions may include presentation of material from books included in author-meets-critics sessions.

II. PROGRAM POLICIES

- A. Meeting Participation: The 2015 meetings will be held from Wednesday, March 25 through Saturday, March 28, 2015. Participants should plan to attend for the duration of the meeting. The Southern Sociological Society is unable to honor special requests for dates or times of presentations. All program participants (i.e., those presenting papers, presiding at sessions, serving as discussants, panelists, etc.) must be registered for the annual meeting.
- B. Limitations on Program Appearances: Because meeting rooms and time slots are limited, an individual may serve in no more than two presentation roles (i.e., author of a paper, panel participant, workshop leader, poster presenter, etc.) in the program. There are no limitations on the number of times a person may serve as a session presider or discussant. The maximum number of sessions that any person may organize for the annual meeting is two.

III. EQUIPMENT

LCD projectors will be available for all panel and paper presentations to facilitate computer-based presentations. However, presenters or panel organizers will need to bring their own computers. Please keep in mind that only a limited number of our LCD projectors have HDMI inputs, therefore organizers and presenters will also need supply their own video adapter.
