

Honor SSS in your Estate

The Southern Sociological Society has been a place of comfort and growth for many of us. We can show our gratitude and help future young scholars follow our paths, and we can help the Southern Sociological Society thrive and grow by including SSS in estate planning.

It is wise to discuss the tax benefits and details with financial or legal advisors. The following language will help you make your wishes known:

“I give and bequeath to the Southern Sociological Society, a qualified charitable organization located at 560 McBryde Hall (0137), Blacksburg, VA 24061 the sum of $ _____ (OR _____ percentage OR the securities or property described herein, namely...) to be used as directed by the Executive Committee of the Southern Sociological Society.”

You may reach out to David L. Brunsmas (executiveofficer@southernsociologicalsociety.org) to discuss how you would like your generous contribution recognized and celebrated.
