

Assistant Professor of Sociology

(12-04)

The Department of Sociology is accepting applications for the tenure-track position of Assistant Professor. The department offers both a major and a minor.

Qualifications: Ph.D. in sociology with specializations in gerontology and sociology of health/medical sociology.

Start Date: August 2012

Responsibilities: Most members of the department teach the introductory course. Interest in teaching theory or survey research is desirable. Class sizes vary from 25 to 40.

Professional Development: Francis Marion provides generous support for conference travel when presenting. Summer research stipends are available on a competitive basis.

Application Deadline: Review of applications will begin September 30 and continue until the position is filled.

Application Process: Provide a letter of application referencing position number 12-04; completed FMU application; vitae; and three letters of recommendation (official transcripts will be required of the successful candidate).

Send all material to:

Dr. Joel Thayer
Department of Sociology
Francis Marion University
Florence, SC 29502-0547

Minorities and Women are strongly encouraged to apply.

For the FMU Faculty application, visit
<http://images.acswebnetworks.com/2017/77/FacandotherSpecApplication.pdf>

To obtain information about the State of South Carolina and support services for state employees, visit <http://www.fmarion.edu/about/hrlinks>.

An Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Institution