

Position Description: Evaluator (I-II)

Global Evaluation & Applied Research Solution (GEARS), Inc., a management consulting firm that provides solutions to improve accountability and enhance organizational and programmatic efficiencies, announces an Evaluator I-II position for the Decatur, Georgia office. The position is full-time and offers a competitive salary and benefits package. The Evaluator I-II position will require the best qualified candidate to design, conduct, and manage several program evaluation/applied research activities, using both quantitative and qualitative methodology. The Evaluator I-II position requires the following demonstrated experience and proficiency: data analysis/presentation software packages; quantitative and qualitative research methods; project management; and leadership skills. Experience working in a consulting environment is preferable. Travel may be required.

Minimum Qualifications: Ph.D. Social Scientist; Ed.D., or Masters level Social Scientist with minimum of five years of experience in program evaluation theory and practice. Compensation is commensurate with experience and earnings history. Interested applicant should email resume/Curriculum Vita to careers@getingears.com. The deadline to submit your resume/CV is January 11, 2010.