

Assistant or Associate Professors of Sociology

The University of South Carolina Aiken invites applications for two tenure-track positions at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor of Sociology to begin August 2009. Ph.D. in sociology or criminology is required by August 16, 2009. Candidates will be expected to teach Introductory Sociology and advise undergraduate students.

Position #1: Candidates must be prepared to teach courses in the criminology/criminal justice concentration; significant graduate coursework in criminology is required.

Position #2: Candidates must be prepared to teach the social demography course required of majors.

The Department of Sociology serves about 160 majors and offers the B.A. in Sociology with concentrations in criminology/criminal justice, human services, and general sociology. Located in an historical community near Augusta GA, USCA is a predominately undergraduate institution which emphasizes teaching, requires scholarship, and expects service by its faculty. Faculty typically teach 12 contact hours per week and average class size in the department stands at 27.

Apply on-line at:

<https://uscjobs.sc.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=61619> (Position #1)

OR

<https://uscjobs.sc.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=61620> (Position #2).

Mail unofficial graduate transcripts and a list of at least three academic references to Dr. Barbara Johnson, Chair, Sociology Search Committee, USCA, 471 University Parkway, Aiken, SC 29801. Review of applications will begin November 3 and continue until positions are filled. USC Aiken seeks to attract and retain a diverse faculty consistent with its diverse student body and the diversity in the surrounding community. USCA is an AA/EOE.

Posted to SSS Website and SSSListserv 9-26-08 at 1:04pm