

Southern Methodist University invites applications for a tenure-track position in Sociology at the assistant professor level, beginning August 2009. PhD required by the time of appointment. SMU, located in the center of the vibrant city of Dallas, has completed a very successful capital campaign and is now in the process of building its Sociology program. Applicants will have an opportunity to help construct the future of the department and assist in the development of a new interdisciplinary Markets and Culture major. The position offers a teaching load of two courses each semester and a highly competitive salary. We seek candidates with a primary research and teaching interest in economic sociology and a secondary interest in culture, globalization, organizations, and/or research methods. The successful applicant will have an ambitious research program and excellent teaching skills. Send a letter of application, Curriculum Vitae, three letters of recommendation, a sample manuscript or publication, and evidence of teaching effectiveness to: Kathy Hayes, Acting Chair, Sociology Department, Southern Methodist University, P.O. Box 750192, Dallas, TX 75275-0192. To ensure full consideration for the position, your application must be postmarked on or before October 15, 2008, but applications will be accepted until the position is filled. SMU will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, or veteran status. SMU is committed to non-discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation. Hiring is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a background check.

Posted to website and listserv August 13, 2008 @ 5:46pm

Attached is our ad to hire an Assistant Professor in the area of Economic Sociology. This position (#52674) was approved by