

TENNESSEE TECH UNIVERSITY, a constituent unit of the Tennessee Board of Regents, invites applicants for a full-time, tenure-track, nine-month position in Sociology at the rank of Instructor, to begin August 1, 2012. M.A. in Sociology required. Minimum of five (5) years full-time teaching experience is required. Must be able to teach Introduction to Sociology, and some courses beyond the introductory level compatible with departmental needs including at least two of the following: Sociological Theory; Race & Ethnicity; Aging; and, Marriage & Family. Must be committed to teaching Introduction to Sociology in support of the general education mission of the department.

Preferred qualifications include: experience in academic advising; sponsorship and support of student organizations; service learning, and experience in grant writing. Must demonstrate a commitment to the continued improvement of teaching, using research-based practices; Must demonstrate collegiality and cooperation within the Department, College and University. Please visit our home page at <http://www.tntech.edu/sociology/home/> for information about the department.

All applicants must apply online at www.tntech.edu/jobs and will be required to: upload a Cover Letter of Application; a Curriculum Vitae; a pedagogical philosophy, a research plan, copies of transcripts (official transcripts required upon hire), contact information for (3) references; and complete a TTU Faculty Application.

E-mail contact Jraymondo@tntech.edu.

Complete position summary and application are available at www.tntech.edu/jobs. Initial review of applications will begin November 15, 2011. Open until filled.
AA/EEO